

Electrician Plus

Logo Usage User Agreement

'Electrician Plus'/'Electrician +' is a TESP trademark and can only be used as detailed below. The logo denotes a qualification which has been approved by TESP for the purpose of CPD or upskilling for qualified electricians. It does not provide any endorsement of the quality of delivery by individual training providers.

PERMITTED USAGE

Awarding Organisations:

- may use the logo on certificates for the specific qualifications that are recognised. The logo must only be used on final certificates, not unit certificates.
- may use the logo on web page and marketing content relating to the specific qualification(s).

Training providers:

- may use the logo in marketing or web-based material related only to the specific qualification(s) they offer.
- The logo must not be used to imply that a wider range of qualifications/courses is accredited, or used more generally in marketing/web material.

The logo kitemarks the qualification. It does not imply that training provision is accredited or to a specific quality standard. This is for Awarding Organisation EQA processes to monitor.

How to access the logo:

Requests to use the logo should be made to info@the-esp.org.uk

Awarding Organisations and training providers must sign up to this logo usage agreement agreeing to proper use of the Electrician Plus logo.

If the logo is found to be used inappropriately, all logo usage rights will cease and the logo must be removed from any print or online material.
